CHAMPIONSHIP TRADITION

One of the most storied and tradition-rich programs in the nation, the UF women's tennis team has won seven national championships, the second-most all time. A perennial power and Southeastern Conference stalwart, Florida's history runs deep with 57 All-Americans, 29 conference titles, 20 SEC Tournament crowns and 11 individual national champions. With a 1098-188 all-time record, the Gators consistent run of excellence has been mirrored by few across the women's college tennis landscape. The success has translated in a major way on the national stage as UF boasts a remarkable 118-32 record in NCAA Tournament action, the second most victories all time.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

Florida's seven National Championships are the second-most in NCAA women's tennis history trailing only Stanford. UF won its first title in 1992, and won two more times in 1996 and 1998 to close the decade with three championships under legendary head coach Andy Brandi. The Gators carried their winning ways into the 2000's as Roland Thornqvist, in his second season, led his squad to the 2003 National Championship at home in Gainesville. Becoming just the second program ever to accomplish it, Florida posted back-to-back titles in 2011 and 2012. Again in 2017, the Gators broke through for their seventh title.

1992 | 1996 | 1998 | 2003 | 2011 | 2012 | 2017

Making their third title match appearance in a five-year span, the Gators won their first-ever NCAA Championship in 1992. Florida completed its third undefeated regular season in five years, but this time carried its winning ways into the postseason where it defeated USC in the round of 16, UCLA in the quarterfinals, Duke in the semifinals and, finally, Texas, 5-3, in the national championship.National Cham-

Collecting their second NCAA Championships in five seasons, the Gators completed their second undefeated season, as they posted a 31-0 record in 1996. UF again was the season's wire-to-wire No. 1 squad. After the Gators fell 5-4 in the 1995 NCAA tournament finale vs. Texas, Florida fought its way back the next season and earned a 5-2 victory over juggernaut Stanford, in a match played in Tallahassee.

Playing in their fourth straight NCAA Championship match, Florida was victorious yet again as it dispatched Duke 5-1 in May of 1998 on the campus of Notre Dame. Posting its third and final NCAA title of the decade, UF completed its third undefeated season, finishing 27-0. The Gators were certainly battled tested when it was all said and done as they took on 25 ranked opponents in a total of 27 matches.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

For the first time, Florida hoisted the NCAA Championship trophy at its home facility as it earned a thrilling 4-3 victory over Stanford at the Ring Tennis Complex. Hosting the event for the fifth time, UF won the game's ultimate prize in front of 1,132 fans. The No. 2-seeded Gators upset the top-ranked and two-time defending national champion Stanford, earning the fourth title in program history.

After falling to Stanford 4-3 in the 2010 national title match, the Gators avenged their loss and defeated the Cardinal by the same tally in 2011 to claim the program's fifth national championship. Returning five from the 2010 squad, the Gators put an end to Stanford's staggering NCAA-record 184 consecutive home-match win streak and its 47-match overall win streak.

Becoming just the second team in the history of NCAA women's tennis to do so, the Gators claimed their second straight national championship with a 4-0 victory over top-seeded UCLA in 2012. Winning on the homecourt of the Georgia Bulldogs, Florida, which finished 27-1, claimed the game's ultimate prize for the sixth time and third time in head coach Roland Thornqvist's tenure.

Familiar foes Florida and Stanford would clash for the 15th time in the NCAA tournament finale, but this time it was the Gators who came out on top to nab their seventh National Championship with a 4-1 win at Georgia's Dan Magill Tennis Complex. Returning to Athens, a city where they celebrated just five years prior, the Gators stymied a Stanford team which had eliminated them the year before from postseason play.

SUCCESS IN THE SEC

The Southeastern Conference men's and women's tennis programs continue to be among the nation's leaders on the collegiate hardcourt.

All 10 of the SEC's national women's team titles have come in the last 29 years, with Florida's seven (1992, 1996, 1998, 2003, 2011, 2012 and 2017), Georgia's two (1994 and 2000) and Vanderbilt's one (2015).

SEC Women's Tennis By the Numbers....

>> 10 NCAA team championships (1992, '94, '96, '98, 2000, '03, '11, '12, '15, '17)
>> 10 NCAA runner-up teams (1987, '88, '89, '95, '97, '99, 2001, '02, '10, '13, '18)
>> 20 straight years with a team in national semifinals (1987-2006)
>> 8 NCAA singles titles (1984, '88, '92, '93, '94, '96, 2010, '18)
>> 9 NCAA doubles titles (1989, '91, '96, '97, 2001, '14, '15, '16, '18)
>> 152 singles ITA All-Americans since 1990
>> 170 doubles ITA All-Americans since 1990

The 1996 Gator squad was one of the best teams in SEC and collegiate history, running through the league dual match season with a combined 76-1 singles record and a 26-1 doubles mark that included regular season and tournament action. UF also swept all nine SEC First Team honors. Not only did the 1996 team win the SEC regular-season and tournament titles, the Gators swept the NCAA team, singles and doubles championships, as well.

HEAD COACH

23RD YEAR AT FLORIDA | 28TH YEAR OVERALL

There hasn't been much the Florida women's tennis team hasn't accomplished. But Roland Thornqvist, who in 2023-24 completed his 23rd year as head coach of the Gators, continues to find a way to raise the standard of success in Gainesville.

Thornqvist owns a remarkable 546-136 head coaching record in 26 years, including a 472-90 mark at Florida.

In 20 years with Thornqvist on the sidelines, some of Florida's more significant highlights include four NCAA Team Championships (2003, 2011, 2012, & 2017), as well as 11 SEC regular-season titles (2003, 2004, 2006, 2007, 2008, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2013, 2015 & 2016) and 10 SEC Tournament crowns (2002, 2003, 2004, 2005, 2006, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2013 & 2016).

With a total of four National Championships, Thornqvist has added to the rich history of Florida women's tennis and continues to lead one of the nation's most prominent programs.

Individually, Thornqvist has been honored as the ITA National Coach of the Year (2011), the ITA Southeast Region Coach of the Year (2010 & 2012) and the Southeastern Conference Coach of the Year (2004, 2006, 2010, 2013 & 2016).

The Sweden native continues to climb the charts in terms of NCAA historical success as he ranks top 10 all time in Division I winning percentage (8th, .808) and top 20 in all-time wins (12th, 512). Among active head coaches, Thornqvist carries the fourth-highest winning percentage and the eighth-most victories. *As of July 2020.

Over the course of the past 14 completed seasons, Thornqvist is one of just two coaches to win multiple NCAA Championship (3) and finish in the top 10 of the final ITA Rankings at least eight times.

The team and individual accomplishments under Thornqvist's guidance continue to grow with every season.

He has guided Florida to 11 NCAA 'final four' appearances, with four culminating in titles and two as national runner-up (2002 & 2010).

In the classroom, 17 of his Gator squads have earned ITA All-Academic Team honors by compiling a minimum cumulative team grade point average of 3.20 (on a 4.00 scale).

The Gators put forth their best effort since the 2017 season during the 2022 campaign, ending with Florida's 34th-consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance and hosting the NCAA first and second rounds for the 21st time since 1999. Taking a 10-3 SEC record into the SEC Tournament, which was hosted at the University of Florida, the Gators took down No. 30 Arkansas, 4-1, in the quarterfinals before falling narrowly to No. 6 Texas A&M in the semifinal, 3-2. Finishing with a 21-7 dual match record, UF advanced out of the opening-weekend of the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2017, defeating South Alabama and Florida State before falling to No. 1 North Carolina in the Super Regional round. Graduate student McCartney Kessler earned ITA All-American honors in singles play, while also being named the 2022 SEC Player of the Year and First Team All-SEC. Alicia Dudeney, who was named to the SEC All-Freshman Team, joined senior Marlee Zein for Second Team All-SEC honors.

Guiding the Gators through the unique challenges presented by the 2020-21 campaign, Thornqvist helped lead Florida to its 33rd-straight NCAA Tournament appearance. Anchored by All-American McCartney Kessler, Florida played host to the NCAA's first and second rounds for the 20th time since the field expanded to 64 in 1999. After falling at No. 3 Georgia and No. 21 Tennessee in early March, UF's record stood at just 5-6. Against the ropes with a thin roster, the Gators had their work cut out for them with seven more SEC contests remaining, all against ranked opponents. Under the tutelage of Thornqvist, the engineer of four National Championships with the Gators, Florida would return to its winning ways and right the ship with seven-straight victories to close out the regular season. The turnaround began on a Friday evening in Gainesville. Featuring a new-look lineup, Florida routed Missouri by the score of 4-0. Hosting No. 20 Arkansas less than 48 hours later, Florida achieved the same result as it blanked the Hogs, 4-0. The Gators extended their streak with victories at Ole Miss and Mississippi State and notched home wins against Kentucky and Vanderbilt. Following a 10-day break, Florida was tasked with closing its regular season at No. 24 South Carolina. The resilient Gators overcame their loss of the doubles point and posted a win again, for the seventh-straight match. UF finished the SEC campaign 10-3, good for a second place finish.

Several Gators flourished on an individual level in 2021 including Kessler and Zein who were both tabbed ITA All-Americans. For the third time, Kessler collected SEC postseason honors following a 14-2 finish in dual match singles and an 11-6 record in dual match doubles.

Zein, a Second Team All-SEC pick, put together an impressive junior season with the Gators, recording a 10-9 record in dual match singles and an 11-6 mark in dual match doubles. One of two seniors on the unit, Ida Jarlskog came through with a successful final season in Gainesville. The Sweden native registered an 8-3 mark in dual match play, including a 6-1 record in SEC matches, and earned a Second Team All-SEC designation as well. Junior Sydney Berlin took a massive step forward in 2021 under Thornqvist's guidance. The left hander posted a 13-4 mark in dual match singles and added a team-best five match clinching victories including one against Siena in the NCAA Tournament. In her first collegiate season, Sara Dahlstrom earned SEC All-Freshman Team honors.

Thornqvist led the Gators to a 5-4 record in the shortened season of 2020, finishing with a record above .500 for the 20th-straight season overall. Under his watch, Thornqvist saw tremendous individual improvement up and down his roster, but the most noticeable may have been the strides taken by then junior McCartney Kessler. After a successful fall campaign, Florida's No. 1 finished the season with a 21-12 record. Come conference play, Kessler really had things clicking as she posted a 3-1 mark in SEC competition. Thornqvist also helped then sophomore Marlee Zein continue to progress as the Houston native won five of her six dual match tilts. As a team, the Gators did endure four losses but all four came at the hands of top 40 squads. Florida's most noteworthy wins came on the road as it posted victories at No. 47 Alabama and No. 48 Auburn in succession in late February. Florida's excellence in academics continued yet again in 2020, as the Gators garnered ITA All-Academic Team honors for the 10th straight season.

On March 8, 2019 Thornqvist added to his lengthy list of accomplishments when Florida earned a 4-3 win over No. 43 Arkansas. The program's all-time winningest head coach, Thornqvist, notched his 500th career victory, making him just the fourth active coach to reach the 500 win plateau. In addition to his milestone achievement, he was also named one of seven new appointees to the Intercollegiate Tennis Association Board of Directors on April 24.

Thornqvist guided the Gators to their 32nd-straight NCAA Tennis Championship appearance and 37th in the program's 38 year history in 2019. Returning just two core contributors from the 2018 roster and dealing with untimely injuries to two of its top players, Florida endured some ups and downs. The Gators closed strong winning two of their last three matches, including a pivotal 4-3 victory over No. 14 Michigan. The five-time SEC Coach of the Year helped Florida pick up 10 top 50 wins and maintain a top 50 ITA ranking for the duration of the season. The Gators featured one of the nation's most-challenging schedules and battled 16-straight ranked opponents to finish the season. While UF's record stood at just 13-12 by season's end, the young and scrappy Gators were competitive in just about every match as they squared off in 10 contests that were decided by a 4-3 verdict.

From an individual perspective, under Thornqvist's tutelage Florida also achieved success as it had three receive SEC postseason awards and three singles players and a doubles team featured in the ITA rankings for the majority of the season. Sophomore Ida Jarlskog, one of the team's two transfers, enjoyed an excellent first season of competition under Thornqvist's watch. She competed for the majority of the season at the top spot in singles, finished a team-best 14-6, and was named All-SEC First Team. McCartney Kessler, earning an SEC postseason honors for the second-straight season, was tabbed to the All-SEC Second Team while freshman Marlee Zein earned a spot on the All-Freshman squad.

Career win number 400, his 325th with UF, was special for Thornqvist and the Gators as they took down top-seeded, No. 1-ranked and host Georgia, 4-1, earning a spot in the 2014 NCAA Semifinals. His 400th win at UF was an impressive 4-2 victory in the 2017 NCAA Semifinals against a Vanderbilt team that dealt the Gators two of their three regular-season setbacks. His 300th victory with the Gators came on May 12, 2013, with the 4-0 decision against Georgia Tech in the second round of the 2013 NCAA Championships. Thornqvist's 350th all-time win, as well as the 275th of his Gator tenure was the 4-3 thriller in the 2012 NCAA Semifinals against Duke en route to the winning his third national championship.

Thornqvist guided the Gators to a 19-9 record and in NCAA appearance in 2018. UF finished tied for second in the SEC while featuring a trio of All-SEC First Team honorees in Anna Danilina, McCartney Kessler and Josie Kuhlman. Under Thornqvist's tutelage, Danilina finished her Gator career as a three-time All-American.

Thornqvist's veteran-laden 2016-17 squad stood up to all challengers in the NCAA Championships and won Florida's seventh national championship, its fourth under Thornqvist's direction. Senior Belinda Woolcock reached the finals of the NCAA Singles Championships, having to beat junior teammate Anna Danilina in a three-set semifinal bout to advance.

In 2014-15, Florida ended the year ranked No. 1 in the final national poll after sweeping the SEC regular-season and tournament titles. Brooke Austin, who was named the SEC Player of the Year for the second consecutive season, and Kourtney Keegan captured the NCAA Doubles Championship, while the Gators extended their overall home win streak to 159, which includes 26 wins in postseason play (SEC and NCAA Championships). It is the longest active home win streak by any NCAA Division I team in any sport in the nation.

The 2013-14 team reached the NCAA Semifinals for the second consecutive year, ending the season ranked No. 5 in the final national poll, marking the program's fifth consecutive year with a top-5 ranking, as well as the 28th time in program history since the rankings began in 1980. The Gators fell to eventual NCAA Champion UCLA, 4-0. UF concluded the season 23-6. They tied for second in the Southeastern Conference regular season standings, and advanced to the quarterfinal round of the SEC Tournament.

The 2012-13 Gators finished the season ranked No. 2 in the final national poll after compiling a 26-3 overall record and advancing to the semifinals of the NCAA Championships, bowing out to eventual champion Stanford, 4-3. The Gators won a share of the the Southeastern Conference regular season title and captured the SEC Tournament championship during the year.

Sofie Oyen and Lauren Embree both sat atop the ITA National Singles Rankings during the 2012-13, becoming the 10th and 11th Gators since the 1998 season to earn the No. 1 singles ranking. Oyen and Embree are the sixth and seventh different players, respectively, under Thornqvist to earn the nation's top ranking.

Embree also became the first player in SEC history to be voted the league's Player of the Year three times, doing so in 2010, 2012 and 2013. The talented Gator also became the 20th different Gator to capture a collegiate Grand Slam title when she won the 2012 Riviera/ITA All-American Singles Championship.

Allie Will, who earned the No. 1 overall seed in the 2012 NCAA Singles & Doubles Championships reached the semifinals of the singles event, captured the 2011 Riviera/ITA All-American Singles Championship during the fall in addition to a runner-up finish with then-sophomore Sofie Oyen in the doubles draw of the national tournament. Joanna Mather, the lone senior on the 2011-12 roster, reached the finals of the 2011 USTA-ITA National Indoor Championships, while junior Lauren Embree and Mather won the consolation draw of the 2011 Riviera/ITA All-American Doubles Championships.

The 2011-12 Gators capped their 27-1 record winning the 2012 NCAA Championship, earning the program's sixth national championship and the first time the team has won back-to-back titles - only the second team in NCAA Women's Tennis history to do so. Florida earned the No. 2 overall seed in the 64-team event for the second consecutive year after winning the Southeastern Tournament for the third straight season and netting an 11-0 record en route to claiming the league's regular-season crown.

The 2011-12 team was able to produce the program's 22nd undefeated home record (12-0) and extend its overall home winning streak to 107 – the longest run by an NCAA Division I women's team in any sport.

The 2010-11 season culminated with the program's fifth NCAA championship, as the squad defeated top-seeded Stanford, 4-3, after sophomore Lauren Embree provided the remarkable 5-7, 6-3, 7-6 (6) clinching singles win, rallying from down 4-0 in the third set. Embree's heroics were made possible after freshmen Olivia Janowicz and Alexandra Cercone won their respective singles matches in three sets and the Gators captured the doubles point to being the match.

Thornqvist was recognized by his peers, who voted him the 2011 Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA) National Coach of the Year, the first such honor in his career.

Florida ended the 2010-11 season with a 31-1 record, marking the program's seventh 30-win campaign, and on a 21-match winning streak - a run tied for the 10th longest in school history.

Florida earned the No. 2 overall seed in the 64-team NCAA event after winning the SEC Tournament and netting an 11-0 record en route to claiming the league's regular-season crown.

Fairly typical accomplishments for one of the nation's best programs, however, Thornqvist's bunch did this without a senior on its roster. Joanna Mather was the only healthy junior in a lineup that also included three sophomores and three freshmen.

The 2011 squad also kept its focus in the classroom, where eight of the nine roster members were named to either the SEC Academic Honor Roll or the SEC Freshman Academic Honor Roll. As a team, the Gators combined for a 3.43 GPA - good for recognition to the 2011 ITA Team Academic All American honor.

The young Gators carried the program's tradition of success throughout the season, advancing to the final of the ITA National Team Indoor Championships. Sophomore Allie Will, who went on to be named the 2011 SEC Player of the Year, paired with freshman Sofie Oyen and won the USTA-ITA National Indoor Doubles Championship, as they became the third different Gator tandem to win the USTA-ITA National Indoor Championships doubles title, joining the teams of Nicole Arendt and Jillian Alexander, which won the 1991 crown, and Dawn Buth and Stephanie Nickitas, which captured the 1996 championship.

Oyen and Will were the 18th and 19th different Gators to win an individual Grand Slam title, as they produced the 24th championship trophy in the illustrious history of the Florida program.

Thornqvist welcomed the No. 1-ranked recruiting class to the court for the 2009-10 season, which proved to be another exciting one in Gainesville.

Then-rookies Lauren Embree and Allie Will controlled the top two positions in the singles and doubles dual match lineup and helped Florida compile a 29-3 overall record, including a perfect 11-0 mark in Southeastern Conference action, as the Gators won the regular season and tournament titles.

UF marched into the 2010 NCAA Championships final match, where Marrit Boonstra, one of two seniors on the team, dropped a heartbreaking three-setter – 7-5 in the third – of the clinching match that Stanford took to win the title, 4-3.

Under Thornqvist's guidance Embree became the first freshman every voted the SEC Player of the Year, as Embree also garnered ITA National Rookie Player of the Year honors. Will earned recognition as the SEC Freshman of the Year, while Thornqvist was honored by his peers for the third time as the league's Coach of the Year.

For guiding such a young team that featured six underclassmen to the enormous success it did in 2009-10, Thornqvist earned the ITA Southeast Region Coach of the Year accolade.

There was not another team in the country during the 2008-09 season that played with more heart and got more passion and grit out of its team than the University of Florida. Simply knowing the details of what the Gators endured throughout the course of the grueling year would make it easy to use those things as an excuse and state that every program has a down year once in a while. The 2008-09 Gators refused to let adversity stand in their way, as they played with as much heart and Gator pride as any team that has ever suited up. In spite of everything, Florida still marched into the NCAA Championship round of 16, where it dropped a brilliant fight to the event's No. 2 seed.

The 2007-08 Florida women's tennis team survived early-season setbacks and mounted a valiant charge toward collecting championships, coming away with the program's 23rd Southeastern Conference regular-season title in the 29-year history of the event, while marching into the semifinals of the NCAA Championships for the 19th time in the last 22 years, bowing out to eventual champion UCLA, 4-2, as the Gators were the only team to win a point against the Bruins during their six-match run. Injuries dwindled the Gators' senior trio to a just two, with only Whitney Benik earning a spot in the dual match lineup by season's end, as Florida compiled a 24-3 overall record, including an 11-0 mark in conference action to produce the 17th undefeated league ledger in school history.

The 2006-07 team faced some difficult personal, off-the-court adversity from a number of its players. Several Gators became unable to compete during a large portion of the dual match season, which significantly altered the singles' and doubles' lineups. While Thornqvist was able to patch together six semi-healthy players for singles, the doubles' pairings were blown apart. In spite of it all, the team still won a share of the SEC Regular Season and Eastern Division titles, with the only loss a 4-3 decision on the road at Georgia. The 2006-07 Gators, which featured three freshmen, three juniors and one senior, earned the No. 1 national ranking on March 6, 2007, eventually receiving the No. 4 seed in the NCAA Championships and the right to host a First & Second Round Regional. Florida marched into the quarterfinals, eventually falling to national runner-up UCLA in a thrilling 4-3 decision.

Prior to the 2005-06 season, Florida had won 14 of the previous 18 SEC Tournament championships, including each of the last four. Amazingly, not once during any of those title runs did the Gators sweep every opponent en route to the crown - until the 2005-06 season, when Florida did just that, winning its fifth straight conference postseason title. Florida battled through the SEC regular season and emerged with a perfect 11-0 record and the overall league champion, as Thornqvist was recognized as the SEC Coach of the Year. The 2005-06 Gators marched into the semifinals of the NCAA Championships, where their season ended to eventual champion Stanford. Florida capped its season with a 25-2 record and ranked No. 2 in the final national poll. The Gators received the No. 4 seed in the NCAA Championships, earning the right to host the first and second rounds. The team's 4-0 victory on May 19, 2006 against Baylor in the NCAA quarterfinals was his 200th career win, also his 125th with the Gators.

His fourth year as head coach at Florida might have been one of the best coaching seasons Thornqvist produced as a collegiate head coach. The 2004-05 season wasn't the typical Florida tennis campaign, but somehow the Gators found their way back into a familiar position of advancing to the semifinals of the NCAA Championships for the 17th time in the last 19 years, completing the season with a 22-3 record.

Sure, Florida also captured its fourth consecutive and 14th overall SEC title. The team finished tied for second in the SEC regular season standings, as the squad has finished either first or runner-up for the 26th straight time — every year in league history.

However, even before those events took place, the 2004-05 Gators were faced with significant setbacks. The team lost three starters from the previous season, including senior-to-be Alexis Gordon, who left the team for personal reasons one year removed after earning the No. 1 singles ranking in the country. Gordon's departure meant junior Jennifer Magley and UF's lone senior Zerene Reyes were forced higher in the lineup than expected. Combine that with three freshmen - the most on a Gator roster since the 1996-97 season - and Thornqvist with Associate Head Coach Dave Balogh had their work cut out for themselves.

Thornqvist completed his third year at UF guiding the 2004 Gators to a 23-1 overall record and a No. 3 final national ranking. Additionally, UF was named to the ITA All-Academic Team by posting higher than a 3.2 team grade point average during the year.

Despite annoying injuries throughout the season, the 2004 Gators successfully defended their SEC regular season and tournament titles. The squad extended its overall winning streak to 40 consecutive dual matches – the third-longest streak in program history. Thornqvist's accomplishments were recognized by his colleagues, who named him the SEC Coach of the Year. UF was listed at No. 1 in two rankings periods during the 2004 season and received the top seed in the NCAA Championships.

The 2003 season was a magical one for the Florida women's tennis program and for Thornqvist. The Gators captured their fourth overall NCAA championship with a thrilling 4-3 upset over top-seeded and two-time defending champion Stanford. In the process, Thornqvist became just the seventh different coach ever to win an NCAA women's tennis title. At age 33 (born March 3, 1970), he also became the second youngest ever to hoist the trophy. USC's Dave Borelli was the youngest, winning the title in 1983 when he was 32 (born Feb. 4, 1951).

While the national championship certainly was the highlight of the season, that was not the only accomplishment. Florida captured the 2003 SEC regular season title before winning the 2003 SEC Tournament crown. The Gators returned to the National Team Indoor Championships for the first time since 1999 and reached the final before losing a 4-3 battle to Duke. Florida received a program-record-tying eight individual bids into the NCAA Singles and Doubles Championships, including a program-high three doubles teams.

On June 22, 2001, the University of Florida Athletic Association and Athletics Director Jeremy Foley introduced Thornqvist as its new women's tennis coach. He took over the program from Andy Brandi, who resigned on May 29, 2001 after 17 successful seasons with the Florida program.

The Gators have not missed a beat under Thornqvist's direction.

During the 2002 season, his first with the Gators, Florida compiled a remarkable 24-2 overall record and finished with a No. 2 national ITA ranking. UF won the SEC Tournament title after entering the event as the No. 2 seed. The Gators were the No. 1 ranked team when the March 26, 2002 Omni Hotels Collegiate rankings were released, marking the first time Florida had been at the top spot since May 11, 1999, when the Gators were ranked No. 1 the entire season but lost to Stanford in the NCAA final to end the year ranked second. The Gators remained at the top spot for the next period before dropping one position after losing to Georgia on April 7. UF was awarded the No. 1 seed in the 64-team NCAA Tournament, and reached the NCAA Final before losing to host Stanford in the championship bout.

Individually in 2002, senior Jessica Lehnhoff flourished despite the coaching change. She received the No. 1 singles ranking in the April 17, April 24 and May 1st listings, becoming the first Gator to earn the nation's top ranking since Jill Craybas ended the 1996 season at the No. 1 spot. Lehnhoff became the first player in UF history to reach the semifinals of the NCAA Singles and NCAA Doubles Championships in the same year; reaching the final match of the singles tournament.

Florida accomplished all of this and more despite having just six players on its entire 2002 roster. When Thornqvist accepted the head coaching position at Florida on June 22, 2001, he inherited a Gator squad that had just four players. So his first task with assistant coach Balogh was to recruit two more athletes just to comprise a six-player roster. Thornqvist and Balogh were at the 'right place at the right time' when Alexis Gordon was searching for a school to attend and would be able to join the team during the Fall of 2001. Then Zerene Reyes, a native of Mexico City, Mexico, joined the squad in January – finally completing the six-player roster!

Thornqvist joined the Florida program with a five-year record of 75-50 after coaching at the University of North Carolina for the past three seasons (42-30) and at Kansas from 1997-98 (33-20). Each team advanced to the NCAA Championships under Thornqvist, with the 1998 Kansas team advancing to the Round of 16. In his premiere season at UNC in 1999, he led the Tar Heels to the NCAA Second Round in their first-ever NCAA appearance.

"Ever since I started playing tennis, Florida tennis has been THE program. To have the opportunity to lead the Florida women's team is just really a dream come true. Andy Brandi built a program that is respected and envied across the nation. I am honored to be following in his footsteps," Thornqvist said. "One thing that really attracted me was Jeremy Foley. I liked the way he operates and he is straight forward, very goal-oriented and driven and that is exactly how I see myself."

Thornqvist returned to his alma mater in June of 1998 to take a North Carolina team that posted a 1998 record of 5-17 to a record of 16-9 and its first-ever NCAA berth in 1999. The Tar Heels also recorded their first NCAA Tournament victory in 1999, taking a 5-4 win over Washington in the opening round. His Tar Heel teams also advanced to the NCAA Tournament in 2000 and 2001, reaching the second round again in 2001. The UNC team finished the 2001 season ranked No. 17 in the final Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA) poll - the highest final position in the history of the Tar Heel program.

In his first head coaching assignment at Kansas, Thornqvist led the Jayhawks to a second-place finish in the 1997 Big 12 Conference standings and a No. 1 regional ranking. The 1998 Jayhawk squad compiled a 18-6 record, won the NCAA Central Regional Championship at Brigham Young University and advanced to the NCAA round of 16 before losing to Georgia.

Prior to his tenure at KU, Thornqvist spent 1994-96 as the assistant men's tennis coach at UNC. Thornqvist also played professional tennis for one year after completing his collegiate eligibility, attaining a world ranking of No. 290 in singles.

Thornqvist established himself as one of the top players in the history of the Atlantic Coast Conference during his collegiate career. He was a three-time first-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection, the 1993 ACC Player of the Year, a 1992 and 1993 first-team All-American and a 1992 and 1993 NCAA Tournament quarterfinalist in singles. In 1992, he led the Tar Heels to the ACC Championship and to the quarterfinals of the NCAA Tournament. The Tar Heels also made the NCAA Tournament during his senior season, advancing to the round of 16. Thornqvist won the 1993 Rolex National Indoor Singles Championship as a senior. In both 1992 and 1993, he won the ITA's Rafael Osuna National Sportsmanship Award. He is the only college player in history to win that award twice. Thornqvist was the No. 4-ranked collegiate singles player in the country his senior year.

A native of Stockholm, Sweden, Thornqvist received his bachelor's degree in economics from UNC in 1996. He played for the Tar Heels from 1990-93, transferring from Elon College, where he played one year and won the NAIA singles and doubles championships as a freshman in 1990. He also led Elon to the NAIA team championship that year.

Thornqvist is married to Nan Thornqvist and they are the parents of Maclaine, who was born in November 1999, and Whitney, who was born in January 2001.

ASSISTANT COACH

JEREMY BAYON

10TH YEAR AT FLORIDA | 20TH YEAR OVERALL

Jeremy Bayon, after serving as a men's tennis assistant coach for Florida from 2003-2012, was announced as an assistant coach for Florida women's tennis in January of 2023.

Bayon most recently served as the head coach for the Georgia Southern men's team, taking over the role in June of 2021.

Much of Bayon's coaching experience comes from a successful tenure in the Southeastern Conference, first at Mississippi State from 2001-2003 with the men's team, and then at the University of Florida under head coach Andy Jackson from 2003-2012.

During his stint in Gainesville, he helped the Gators to a Final Four appearance in 2005, as well as winning the SEC tournament championships in 2005 and 2011. The Gators were ranked in the top-10 nationally in eight of his nine seasons with the Orange & Blue. He assisted in producing 15 All-Americans and three SEC Players of the Year.

Following his coaching stint at Florida, Bayon founded the Junior Elite Tennis Academy and worked as the academy director and head coach for three years. After moving to Indianapolis in 2015, Bayon served as the Director of Tennis at the Five Seasons Family Sports Club in 2017 and coached high-performance juniors at the Indianapolis Racquet Club in 2018.

Prior to his stop at Georgia Southern, Bayon spent two seasons at Nebraska as the assistant women's tennis coach. Bayon made an immediate impact on the program, helping the Cornhuskers to an 11-4 record in a shortened 2019-2020 campaign. In 2020-21, two Huskers received recognition from the conference. Kristina Novak was named First-Team All-Big Ten and Maja Makoric earned the Big Ten Sportsmanship Award. Bayon helped lead the team to an 11-6 overall mark.

Novak earned All-Big Ten Honors for the first time in her career in 2021 after posting a 12-8 singles record playing out of the No. 1 spot in the lineup in every match. In doubles action, Novak teamed up with four different partners throughout the season to go 8-9 overall and 5-3 with partner Makoric at the No. 1 spot.

Before joining the Husker coaching staff, Bayon worked as an assistant coach at IUPUI with the women's team for the 2018-19 season and the women's squad at Butler University from 2015-17.

Bayon was a four-year letterman for Mississippi State from 1997-2000 and was a member of four teams that made NCAA appearances, including one of Mississippi State's school-best national semifinal showings in 1998.

During his four-year stint on the squad, Bayon compiled career records of 88-51 (63.3 percent) in singles and 82-49 (62.6 percent) in doubles, ranking him in fifth place on Mississippi State's all-time list for total wins when combining singles and doubles play. He ranks eighth in singles and second in doubles overall.

More impressively, however, was Bayon's victory rate in team match situations for the Bulldogs. MSU's team captain in 1999 and 2000, he registered dual match records of 63-23 (73.3 percent) in singles and 57-32 (64.0 percent) in doubles. When combining those two marks, he is Mississippi State's all-time leader in dual match triumphs with 120 career wins in team competition. He is third in Mississippi State history in dual match singles wins and first in doubles.

Bayon held national rankings in both singles and doubles for much of his career, climbing as high as 43rd in the country in singles and sixth in doubles. He closed out his career in 2000, his senior campaign, with his best results, qualifying for the NCAA Singles Championship. He was also an NCAA Doubles Championship participant in 1998 with partner Simon Larose.

A native of St. Etienne, France, Bayon holds a bachelor of business and administration degree from Mississippi State. Bayon and his wife, Rhonda, have two sons, Noah and Isaiah.

FOLLOWING COLLEGE TENNIS

THE FALL SEASON – FOCUS ON INDIVIDUAL TOURNAMENTS

The first half of the college tennis season begins in mid-September and continues through early November. Individual events and tournaments are scheduled during this time frame, as student-athletes represent their university in selected singles and doubles contests.

Two of the three Grand Slam events also take place in the fall: the Riviera/ITA All-American (Pacific Palisades, Calif.) held in September and the Oracle ITA National Fall Championships, which replaced the ITA National Indoor Championships held Nov. 7-11 in Surprise, Ariz.

THE SPRING SEASON – FOCUS ON TEAM/DUAL MATCH EVENTS

While a handful of individual tournaments are still contested, the focus of the second half of the college tennis season, which begins in January, turns to dual match play.

A dual match is an event between two schools that features three doubles matches and six singles matches. The coaches from each school submits a lineup with its top players squaring off against each other at the No. 1 position, its next best player at the No. 2 position and so on through the No. 6 position. The same method applies for doubles.

Each school earns one team point by winning at least two of the three doubles matches and earns an additional point for every victory in singles. The winning school of the dual match captures the best of SEVEN team points. A final score might read: UF def. UX 4-3.

To make dual matches more "fan friendly," doubles matches are scored as a pro set. The winner of a pro set is the first pair to claim six games, while leading by two games. A tiebreaker is implemented if the games are even at 6-all. The only time the pro set scoring is not utilized is during the three doubles Grand Slam events.

Singles matches always implement the traditional scoring method, with the winner claiming two of three sets for a victory. In a dual match, if the team victor already has been determined and an agreement was established between the both coaches, a singles match entering a third set might use a 'super-tie-breaker' in place of a third set to establish the individual winner. The two acceptable methods of displaying that result: 1-6, 6-2, (10-8), or 1-6, 6-2, 1-0 (10-8).

USTA/ITA NATIONAL TEAM INDOOR CHAMPIONSHIPS

The annual ITA Men's and Women's Kick-Off Weekend will take place in late-January 2021 at select campus host sites.

The ITA Kick-Off Weekend features 15 women's host sites with four teams at each site vying to advance to the Team Indoor Championships. The 15 women's teams to win both of their matches will be invited to play in the ITA National Team Indoor Championships held in Chicago.

The No. 1 team at each site will face the No. 4 team. The No. 2 team will face the No. 3 team. Two matches are guaranteed - the winners/losers will play the following day.

COLLEGIATE GRAND SLAM EVENTS

The Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA) sanctions the three legs of the collegiate singles and doubles Grand Slam events as well as the ITA National Team Indoor Championships and the NCAA Team Championships. The tournament legs in order contested: Riviera/ITA All-American; ITA National Indoor Championships; and NCAA Championships. From 1986-2001 there were four national events, but the ITA National Clay Court Championships is no longer played.

ITA Dual Match Format
From the 2017-18 ITA Rule Book for NCAA Division I Women's Tennis

I. TEAM COMPETITION — DUAL MATCHES AND TEAM TOURNAMENTS

A. The Code USTA Rules & Regulations are in effect in college tennis except where explicitly superseded by ITA, NCAA, NAIA, NJCAA or Conference Rules. The Code is not part of the ITA Rules of Tennis. Players shall follow The Code unless there is a specific ITA Rule on point or except to the extent to which an Official assumes some of their responsibilities.

B. Formats for Team Play – Division I

1. Three doubles followed by six singles (3-6 Format). The format is three 6-game pro set doubles matches with a 7-point tiebreak at 6-all. Doubles will be followed by six best-of-three set singles matches.

2. Seven team points. The team that wins two of the three doubles matches receives one point. Each singles match is worth one point. Four or more points are required to win the team match.

a. After the doubles point has been decided, any remaining doubles match shall be abandoned.

b. Once the outcome of the team match has been decided, a shortened format shall be played unless both coaches agree otherwise or conference rules supersede. Matches still in the second set shall play a 10-point tiebreak for the third set. Any match already in the third set shall be played to completion. A match that has not started shall consist of two sets with a 10-point tiebreak played at one set all.

3. Scoring. No-ad scoring will be used for both doubles and singles matches.

4. Warm-up. There is no warm-up in doubles or singles for Division I.

5. Time between doubles and singles. In Division I, the singles players must be ready to play within five minutes of the completion of the doubles point. Should there be a last minute change in the singles line-up, the coaches may continue to meet with their players for up to an additional five minutes after the notification of the lineup change is made by the Referee.

6. Other authorized Division I formats. There are only two cases where the Division I format may be adjusted:

a. Inclement Weather. In the case of inclement weather, the Division I format MAY be adjusted as follows, as long as both coaches agree: Singles (six matches) may be played first with doubles to follow if the team match score is tied at 3-3. The match scoring — one point each for singles, one point for two doubles matches — remains the same.

b. Playing to clinch. If both coaches agree, a team match may be stopped once a team reaches four points

Super regional format added to DI tennis

Modification to begin for 2019 championships
by Greg Johnson, ncaa.org

The 16 teams advancing from first and second rounds of the tournament will participate in two-team super regionals on the campuses of the higher-seeded teams. The eight super regional winners for each gender will then advance to the finals site. The Division I Competition Oversight Committee supported the change in January 2017 during its meeting at the NCAA Convention in Nashville, Tennessee.

Currently, teams advancing out of the second round move directly to the finals site.

The number of teams advancing to the finals site will be reduced from 16 to eight per gender. That will in turn reduce the days of competition from six to four and eliminate the strain of completing eight matches on each of the first two days of competition. The format will also provide scheduling flexibility in the event of inclement weather.

The Division I Competition Oversight Committee allows the tennis committee to place the unseeded teams (Nos. 17-64) geographically in the bracket rather than assign them in pods as is currently done.

The change followed a request from the Competition Oversight Committee last October that asked the tennis committee to either justify or consider modifying its bracketing policies and procedures that vary from the general principles established for all Division I team championships, excluding men's and women's basketball.

DOROTHY ANDERSON SCHOLARSHIP

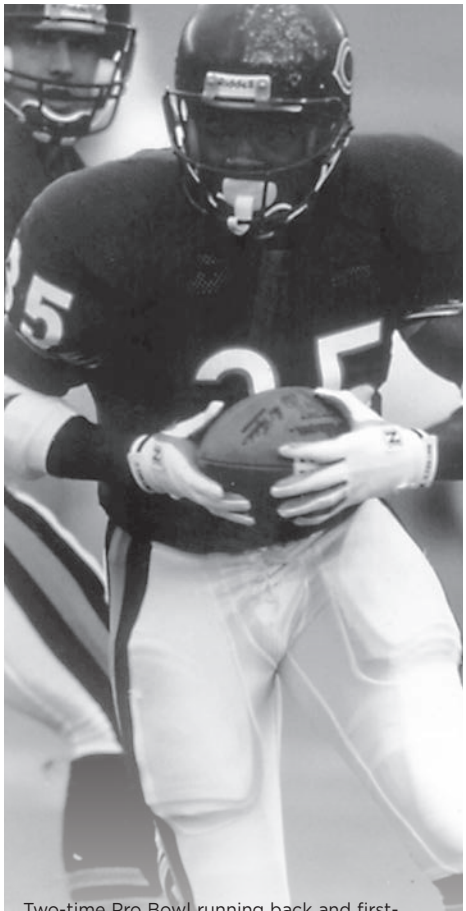
Neal Anderson, a former Gator running back and eight-year NFL veteran with the Chicago Bears who retired prior to the 1994 season, fully endowed a women's tennis scholarship at the University of Florida in October of 1991. The scholarship is named in memory of Anderson's mother, Dorothy, who passed away in 1987 after a long bout with Hodgkin's Disease. Anderson is the first professional athlete to fully endow a scholarship using a cash gift at Florida.

"The scholarship is named in memory of my mother," said Anderson, who was an NFL first-round pick in 1986 by the Chicago Bears. "She would be extremely proud to know about the scholarship and the opportunities it will give someone. My mother loved sports but she made it very clear from day one that school came first. She made sure that I never misunderstood my responsibility to receive a good education while in school."

"I think women's athletics is a great part of the University of Florida. I wanted to contribute to women's tennis for a combination of reasons but mostly because its an area that is still growing. It is a successful program and they need support. Football has always been — at all schools — a program that is taken care of first. I wanted to help out where it is most needed."

Anderson became involved with the tennis program while serving on the Lady Gator Boosters Association Committee. He attended four NCAA women's championships, which his alma mater played host to in 1989, 1990, 1999 and 2003.



Two-time Pro Bowl running back and first-round draft choice Neal Anderson is not only an avid tennis fan, but a gracious supporter of Gator Tennis. In 1990, the University of Florida graduate and SEC Academic Honor Roll selection fully endowed a scholarship in memory of his mother, Dorothy.

Brianna Morgan was a two-time recipient of the Dorothy Anderson Scholarship.

The Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA) sanctions the three legs of the collegiate singles and doubles Grand Slam events as well as the ITA National Team Indoor Championships and the NCAA Team Championships. The tournament legs in order contested: Riviera All-American; ITA/USTA National Indoor (formerly sponsored by ROLEX); and NCAA Championships. From 1986-2001, there were four national events, but the ITA National Clay Court Championships is no longer played.

SEC AWARDS HISTORY

Prior to 1990, there was no distinction between singles and doubles All-SEC honors and only in 1987 and 1993 have the league coaches selected a first- and second-team All-SEC team. In 1994, the format for the award was changed again with the top player(s) at each position (based on record) earning All-SEC honors with the coaches also selecting an at-large squad. In 1995, the second team consisted of all doubles honorees (By position and at-large). The awards changed again in 2005, when the First Team selections were voted on by the league's coaches and the Second Team honorees were determined by the best record at each position. In 2006, the same selection format used in 2005 was followed, but there was no differentiation between singles and doubles awards. (u) indicates unanimous selec-

Quarterfinals: d. Vanderbilt 4-0
Semifinals: d. Duke 4-1
Final: d. Stanford 4-3

May 18, 2003 * Linder Stadium at Ring Tennis Complex Gainesville, Fla.
Every national championship is special, but the fourth one claimed by the University of Florida women's tennis team perhaps might be the one that Gator tennis fans cherish the most.

The 2003 event was the 10th NCAA Championship ever hosted by UF and the women's tennis team became the second to win the title in front of their loyal Gator fans. The 1982 women's swimming & diving team was the only other Gator team to win the national championship in Gainesville.

1998 NCAA CHAMPIONS

Final Record: 27-0 ... SEC Champions
Team Members: Andy Brandi (Head Coach), Sujay Lama (Assistant Coach), Bonnie Bleecker, Dawn Buth, Traci Green, Stephanie Hazlett, Whitney Laiho, Stephanie Nickitas and M.C. White.

1998 NCAA Team Championships

May 21-24, 1998 • Notre Dame, Indiana

First Round: d. Pepperdine 5-2
Quarterfinals: d. Texas 5-0
Semifinals: d. Georgia 5-1
Final: d. Duke 5-1

May 24, 1998 * Notre Dame, Ind.
Senior Dawn Buth and freshman Stephanie Hazlett rallied to win singles matches within moments of each other and capped Florida's 5-1 victory over Duke, which gave the Gators (27-0) their third NCAA Championship.

Florida also had undefeated teams when it won the 1992 and 1996 titles.

"This is overwhelming. That match was so closely contested. It went back and fourth, back and fourth. Dawn and Stephanie seemed to be in control of their matches and then the next it looked like they lost total momentum," UF coach Andy Brandi said. "Emotionally, this was one of the most grueling matches that I've been a part of in 14 years of coaching college tennis. It was amazing to see the fight and see them gut it out. There were brave when they needed to be brave. There were tough when it got to the tough times. I feel like all of this is a dream and it really hasn't sunk in."

Buth, who with fellow senior Bonnie Bleecker, guided UF to a 116-4 dual match record during their four-year careers, tooke a 4-1 lead in the third set against Vanessa Webb at the no. 1 position. Webb fought back and was serving for the match ahead 5-4. But Buth swept the next three games, twice on Webb's serve, and rallied for a 1-6, 6-3, 7-5 victory that gave UF a 4-1 lead.

"I couldn't have asked for a better way to end my career," Buth said. "I'm really proud of this team."

Stephanie Nickitas defeated Megan Miller 6-3, 6-2 at the no. 3 position to give Florida a 1-0 lead. Freshmen M.C. White and Whitney Laiho also won singles matches to set the stage for Buth's and Hazlett's heroics.

1996 NCAA CHAMPIONS

Final Record: 31-0 ... National Team Indoor Champions ... SEC Champions

1996 NCAA Team Championships

May 18-21, 1996 • Tallahassee, Florida

First Round: d. Oklahoma State 5-0
Quarterfinals: d. Wisconsin 5-0
Semifinals: d. UCLA 5-1
Final: d. Stanford 5-2

May 21, 1996 * Tallahassee, Fla.
Senior Lori Ann Freedman blasted a backhand winner down the line and gave the Gator women's tennis team its second NCAA Championship title, with a 5-2 victory over No. 2 Stanford.

Freedman paired with fellow senior Jill Craybas at the No. 3 doubles position and downed 60th-ranked Emily Burt and Beth Berris, 6-2, 7-6 (5), in the clinching match.

Six days following the team title, Craybas won the NCAA Singles title and the pair of Dawn Buth and Stephanie Nickitas won the NCAA Doubles crown, as Florida became only the second team in history to sweep the three NCAA titles (team, singles & doubles) and seal its place as one of the most dominating teams in collegiate history.

Head Coach Andy Brandi was recognized as the Wilson/ITA National Coach of the Year and the Southeastern Conference Coach of the Year, as she collected his 300th career win while guiding the Gators to a perfect 31-0 record.

Gator freshman Stephanie Nickitas, the lone rookie on the team, put Florida on the board early with a decisive 6-1, 6-1 victory over Amy Chiminello at the no. 6 singles position. Chiminello has lost only twice this season and both setbacks have been to Nickitas.

The team lead was short-lived, as Stanford charged back behind Julie Scott's 6-3, 6-2 victory over Bonnie Bleecker at the No. 5 slot. Craybas answered wth a 6-3, 6-4 win over Ania Blesynski at the No. 1 position. Moments later, Divya Merchant dropped a tough 7-6 (2), 6-3 decision at No. 3 to Sandra De Silva as the team score was knotted at 2-all. That's when the drama began, as No. 2 and No. 4 singles entered the third and decisive set.

Senior Lisa Pugliese dropped the first set at no. 4 to Kim Shasby after leading 5-3. However the veteran regained her composure and produced a 5-7, 6-1, 6-1 victory that lifted UF to a 3-2 lead in the team score.

Sophomore Dawn Buth, dubbed by some as the "Michael Chang" of women's college tennis," entered her 18th three-set match of the year after winning the first set but dropped the second to Katie Schlukebir. Buth slugged it out with Schlukebir and emerged with the 6-4, 4-6, 6-3 win - her 14th in three-set matches - and provided Flrodia a 4-2 advantage entering doubles play.

1992 NCAA Team Championships

May 13-16, 1992 • Palo Alto, California

Second Round: d. Southern Cal 5-0
Quarterfinals: d. UCLA 5-0
Semifinals: d. Duke 5-1
Final: d. Texas 5-3

In a season of fulfilled Florida dominance, the Gators found their third trip to the NCAA Finals would be a charm by defeating No. 3 Texas, 5-3. Sophomore Kristin Osmond depicted the team's aggressive character, saving two match points before pulling out a three-hour win at No. 5 singles.

Osmond then teamed with Erika Kuttler to win at No. 3 doubles and clinch the Gator's first NCAA Team Championship.

Florida completed the perfect season: 30-0 undefeated record, NCAA Champions, National Women's Indoor Team Championship, Southeastern Conference regular season and tournament championship. In addition, the Gators won each of the eight singles tournament in which they competed, including three collegiate grand slam titles by freshman Lisa Raymond.

Raymond became the first player in NCAA history, either male or female, to win three collegiate grand slam titles by claiming the NCAA Championship, National Clay Court and ROLEX National Indoor crowns. Raymond upset Georgia's top-seeded Shannan McCarthy in 63 minutes, 6-3, 6-3 for the NCAA crown. Raymond was unanimously chose the National Rookie of the Year and Tennis Magazine's Collegiate Player of the Year.

THE HISTORY OF GATOR WOMEN'S TENNIS

The 1971-72 Lady Gator tennis team

1971-72

- The inaugural women's tennis program is comprised of an intercollegiate team and a competitive club squad. Players who did not make the first 10 positions were members of the club. Linda Hall Thornton was the team's first coach.

1972-73

- The inaugural varsity women's tennis team posts a 9-0 victory over Trenton State on Jan. 5, 1973 in its season opener to begin a winning tradition.
- Sue Whiddon, who had served as Flagler College's Athletics Director, coaches the team to a 5-3 record. Whiddon serves as a graduate coordinator and teacher in the department of Exercise and Sport Sciences at UF.

1973-74

- The team makes its first appearance in national competition, finishing 14th at the AIAW Championships.
- The Gainesville Sun nicknames UF's women's teams "Lady Gators."

1974-75

- Judy Acker becomes the first Florida player to win the state singles title.
- The Lady Gators end the season finishing seventh in the nation.
- Sue Whiddon opts to leave the coaching ranks to pursue her doctoral studies at Florida Atlantic University. She currently serves as a graduate coordinator and teacher in the department of Exercise and Sport Sciences at UF.

1975-76

- B.E. Palmer is selected to coach the team.
- Five of the nine players receive athletic scholarships for the first time ever.
- The Lady Gators finish the season in 12th place.
- Judy Acker is named to the first-ever women's All-American Tennis Team.

1976-77

- Former player Debbie Dunkin becomes the program's first assistant coach.
- Sherry Acker joins her sister Judy on the tennis team, and team-up to finish an impressive third place at the AIAW National Doubles Championships.
- The Lady Gators defeat powerful Rollins College 6-3 for the first time in school history.
- UF ends the year in fifth place, its highest AIAW national finish.

Debbie Dunkin (left) and UF's first All-American Judy Acker pose with the championship trophy for their 1976 state doubles title.

1977-78

- The Lady Gators claim a share of the FAIAW state title for the first time ever when they tie with Rollins.
- UF advances to the regional championships played in Oxford, Miss., and defeats Rollins in a playoff for the Region III tennis crown.
- UF finishes the year in fourth place, which is one spot above its national ranking the previous season.
- The Lady Gators are honored at their season-ending banquet for maintaining a 3.8 team grade point average.

1978-79

- Liz Broughton, who played at Rollins, becomes UF's third coach.
- The Lady Gators end the season with a sixth-place national finish.
- Junior Joyce Portman leads the team in overall singles victories with a 29-7 record.

1979-80

- The Lady Gators capture the inaugural SEC Championship.
- UF wins the FAIAW State championship.
- The Lady Gators win the AIAW Region Championships and advance to the National AIAW Tournament.
- LSU hosts the first Division I Championships under AIAW's new division structure which includes 24 teams, 64 singles and 32 doubles players. The Lady Gators end the season as national runners-up, their highest finish ever.
- Joyce Portman ends her senior year with a career dual match record of 51-10, the most wins in program history.

1980-81

- The Lady Gators win their second straight SEC Championship
- UF finishes in fourth place at the AIAW National Tournament.
- Coach Liz Broughton resigns her position at the end of the season to work on her doctorate.

1981-82

- Former Gator tennis player Steve Beeland is named the team's fourth head coach.
- Cissie Donigan returns as the only Lady Gator to achieve All-State, All Region and AIAW All-America honors.
- The Gators claim their third SEC title, defeating surprise finalist Ole Miss in the finals.
- The team finishes 10th at the inaugural NCAA Tennis Championship for women, losing 5-4 to South Carolina in Salt Lake City, Utah.

1982-83

- The Lady Gators lose four starters from last year, and have their top two spots filled by freshman Kathy Holton and transfer Julie Quamme.
- The team loses to Georgia 5-4 and settles for second place at the SEC Championships.
- UF falls to UCLA 7-2 in the first round of the NCAA Championships.

1983-84

- Suzie Fain is the named the team's new assistant coach.
- The Gators claim their fourth SEC title.
- Kim Clingan and Jill Hetherington receive individual bids to compete in the NCAA Championships.

1984-85

- Andy Brandi becomes the fifth head coach of the Gator women's team.
- Jill Hetherington wins the Southeast Collegiate Tennis Championship.
- The Gators win the SEC team title, with Jill Hetherington capturing the No. 1 singles title before teaming with Jan Martin to win the No. 1 doubles title, as well.
- The Gators finish in seventh place at the NCAA Championships, falling 7-2 to Miami in the quarterfinals.

The 1978 Lady Gators claimed a share of the FAIAW state title for the first time in school history.

1985-86

- The Gators claim their third straight SEC title.
- Jill Hetherington and Tammy Whittington are named to the All-SEC team and Hetherington is also presented with the Sportsmanship Award.
- The Gators do not qualify for the NCAA Championships for the first time since the tournament began in 1982.

1986-87

- The Gators have an extremely strong lineup that year, including the addition of freshman sensation Shaun Stafford from Gainesville.
- The Gators record their most successful season ever, entering the SEC Championships with an undefeated 27-0 record, and the honor of being ranked No. 1 in the nation.
- Jill Hetherington is the first-ever SEC champion to achieve victories in both singles and doubles for four straight years.
- The Gators finish the year winning the SEC Championships and are ranked the nation's No. 2 team behind Stanford University. Shaun Stafford reaches the finals of the NCAA Singles Championships.

1987-88

- UF competes in the first-ever National Indoor Championships, and wins the event by posting a victory over national rival Stanford.
- The new tennis complex is completed. It includes 14 tennis courts, a 1,000 seat stadium, and six lighted courts among others.

DOROTHY ANDERSON SCHOLARSHIP

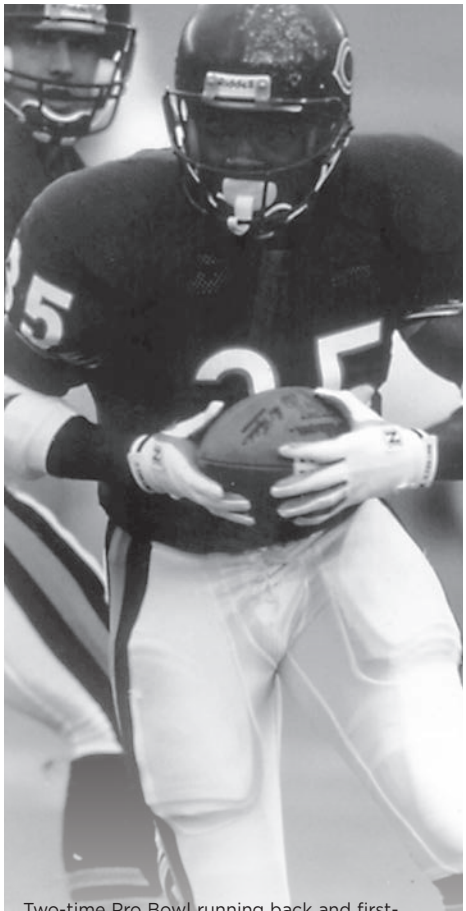
Neal Anderson, a former Gator running back and eight-year NFL veteran with the Chicago Bears who retired prior to the 1994 season, fully endowed a women's tennis scholarship at the University of Florida in October of 1991. The scholarship is named in memory of Anderson's mother, Dorothy, who passed away in 1987 after a long bout with Hodgkin's Disease. Anderson is the first professional athlete to fully endow a scholarship using a cash gift at Florida.

"The scholarship is named in memory of my mother," said Anderson, who was an NFL first-round pick in 1986 by the Chicago Bears. "She would be extremely proud to know about the scholarship and the opportunities it will give someone. My mother loved sports but she made it very clear from day one that school came first. She made sure that I never misunderstood my responsibility to receive a good education while in school."

"I think women's athletics is a great part of the University of Florida. I wanted to contribute to women's tennis for a combination of reasons but mostly because its an area that is still growing. It is a successful program and they need support. Football has always been — at all schools — a program that is taken care of first. I wanted to help out where it is most needed."

Anderson became involved with the tennis program while serving on the Lady Gator Boosters Association Committee. He attended four NCAA women's championships, which his alma mater played host to in 1989, 1990, 1999 and 2003.



Two-time Pro Bowl running back and first-round draft choice Neal Anderson is not only an avid tennis fan, but a gracious supporter of Gator Tennis. In 1990, the University of Florida graduate and SEC Academic Honor Roll selection fully endowed a scholarship in memory of his mother, Dorothy.

Brianna Morgan was a two-time recipient of the Dorothy Anderson Scholarship.

The Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA) sanctions the three legs of the collegiate singles and doubles Grand Slam events as well as the ITA National Team Indoor Championships and the NCAA Team Championships. The tournament legs in order contested: Riviera All-American; ITA/USTA National Indoor (formerly sponsored by ROLEX); and NCAA Championships. From 1986-2001, there were four national events, but the ITA National Clay Court Championships is no longer played.

SEC AWARDS HISTORY

Prior to 1990, there was no distinction between singles and doubles All-SEC honors and only in 1987 and 1993 have the league coaches selected a first- and second-team All-SEC team. In 1994, the format for the award was changed again with the top player(s) at each position (based on record) earning All-SEC honors with the coaches also selecting an at-large squad. In 1995, the second team consisted of all doubles honorees (By position and at-large). The awards changed again in 2005, when the First Team selections were voted on by the league's coaches and the Second Team honorees were determined by the best record at each position. In 2006, the same selection format used in 2005 was followed, but there was no differentiation between singles and doubles awards. (u) indicates unanimous selection by the coaches.

Quarterfinals: d. Vanderbilt 4-0
Semifinals: d. Duke 4-1
Final: d. Stanford 4-3

May 18, 2003 * Linder Stadium at Ring Tennis Complex Gainesville, Fla.
Every national championship is special, but the fourth one claimed by the University of Florida women's tennis team perhaps might be the one that Gator tennis fans cherish the most.

The 2003 event was the 10th NCAA Championship ever hosted by UF and the women's tennis team became the second to win the title in front of their loyal Gator fans. The 1982 women's swimming & diving team was the only other Gator team to win the national championship in Gainesville.

1998 NCAA CHAMPIONS

Final Record: 27-0 ... SEC Champions
Team Members: Andy Brandi (Head Coach), Sujay Lama (Assistant Coach), Bonnie Bleecker, Dawn Buth, Traci Green, Stephanie Hazlett, Whitney Laiho, Stephanie Nickitas and M.C. White.

1998 NCAA Team Championships

May 21-24, 1998 • Notre Dame, Indiana

First Round: d. Pepperdine 5-2
Quarterfinals: d. Texas 5-0
Semifinals: d. Georgia 5-1
Final: d. Duke 5-1

May 24, 1998 * Notre Dame, Ind.
Senior Dawn Buth and freshman Stephanie Hazlett rallied to win singles matches within moments of each other and capped Florida's 5-1 victory over Duke, which gave the Gators (27-0) their third NCAA Championship.

Florida also had undefeated teams when it won the 1992 and 1996 titles.

"This is overwhelming. That match was so closely contested. It went back and fourth, back and fourth. Dawn and Stephanie seemed to be in control of their matches and then the next it looked like they lost total momentum," UF coach Andy Brandi said. "Emotionally, this was one of the most grueling matches that I've been a part of in 14 years of coaching college tennis. It was amazing to see the fight and see them gut it out. There were brave when they needed to be brave. There were tough when it got to the tough times. I feel like all of this is a dream and it really hasn't sunk in."

Buth, who with fellow senior Bonnie Bleecker, guided UF to a 116-4 dual match record during their four-year careers, tooke a 4-1 lead in the third set against Vanessa Webb at the no. 1 position. Webb fought back and was serving for the match ahead 5-4. But Buth swept the next three games, twice on Webb's serve, and rallied for a 1-6, 6-3, 7-5 victory that gave UF a 4-1 lead.

"I couldn't have asked for a better way to end my career," Buth said. "I'm really proud of this team."

Stephanie Nickitas defeated Megan Miller 6-3, 6-2 at the no. 3 position to give Florida a 1-0 lead. Freshmen M.C. White and Whitney Laiho also won singles matches to set the stage for Buth's and Hazlett's heroics.

1996 NCAA CHAMPIONS

Final Record: 31-0 ... National Team Indoor Champions ... SEC Champions

1996 NCAA Team Championships

May 18-21, 1996 • Tallahassee, Florida

First Round: d. Oklahoma State 5-0
Quarterfinals: d. Wisconsin 5-0
Semifinals: d. UCLA 5-1
Final: d. Stanford 5-2

May 21, 1996 * Tallahassee, Fla.
Senior Lori Ann Freedman blasted a backhand winner down the line and gave the Gator women's tennis team its second NCAA Championship title, with a 5-2 victory over No. 2 Stanford.

Freedman paired with fellow senior Jill Craybas at the No. 3 doubles position and downed 60th-ranked Emily Burt and Beth Berris, 6-2, 7-6 (5), in the clinching match.

Six days following the team title, Craybas won the NCAA Singles title and the pair of Dawn Buth and Stephanie Nickitas won the NCAA Doubles crown, as Florida became only the second team in history to sweep the three NCAA titles (team, singles & doubles) and seal its place as one of the most dominating teams in collegiate history.

Head Coach Andy Brandi was recognized as the Wilson/ITA National Coach of the Year and the Southeastern Conference Coach of the Year, as she collected his 300th career win while guiding the Gators to a perfect 31-0 record.

Gator freshman Stephanie Nickitas, the lone rookie on the team, put Florida on the board early with a decisive 6-1, 6-1 victory over Amy Chiminello at the no. 6 singles position. Chiminello has lost only twice this season and both setbacks have been to Nickitas.

The team lead was short-lived, as Stanford charged back behind Julie Scott's 6-3, 6-2 victory over Bonnie Bleecker at the No. 5 slot. Craybas answered wth a 6-3, 6-4 win over Ania Blesynski at the No. 1 position. Moments later, Divya Merchant dropped a tough 7-6 (2), 6-3 decision at No. 3 to Sandra De Silva as the team score was knotted at 2-all. That's when the drama began, as No. 2 and No. 4 singles entered the third and decisive set.

Senior Lisa Pugliese dropped the first set at no. 4 to Kim Shasby after leading 5-3. However the veteran regained her composure and produced a 5-7, 6-1, 6-1 victory that lifted UF to a 3-2 lead in the team score.

Sophomore Dawn Buth, dubbed by some as the "Michael Chang" of women's college tennis," entered her 18th three-set match of the year after winning the first set but dropped the second to Katie Schlukebir. Buth slugged it out with Schlukebir and emerged with the 6-4, 4-6, 6-3 win - her 14th in three-set matches - and provided Flrodia a 4-2 advantage entering doubles play.

1992 NCAA CHAMPIONS

Final Record: 30-0 ... National Team Indoor Champions ... SEC Champions

1992 NCAA Team Championships

May 13-16, 1992 • Palo Alto, California

Second Round: d. Southern Cal 5-0
Quarterfinals: d. UCLA 5-0
Semifinals: d. Duke 5-1
Final: d. Texas 5-3

In a season of fulfilled Florida dominance, the Gators found their third trip to the NCAA Finals would be a charm by defeating No. 3 Texas, 5-3. Sophomore Kristin Osmond depicted the team's aggressive character, saving two match points before pulling out a three-hour win at No. 5 singles.

Osmond then teamed with Erika Kuttler to win at No. 3 doubles and clinch the Gator's first NCAA Team Championship.

Florida completed the perfect season: 30-0 undefeated record, NCAA Champions, National Women's Indoor Team Championship, Southeastern Conference regular season and tournament championship. In addition, the Gators won each of the eight singles tournament in which they competed, including three collegiate grand slam titles by freshman Lisa Raymond.

Raymond became the first player in NCAA history, either male or female, to win three collegiate grand slam titles by claiming the NCAA Championship, National Clay Court and ROLEX National Indoor crowns. Raymond upset Georgia's top-seeded Shannan McCarthy in 63 minutes, 6-3, 6-3 for the NCAA crown. Raymond was unanimously chose the National Rookie of the Year and Tennis Magazine's Collegiate Player of the Year.

THE HISTORICAL HOME STREAK

When the Gators lost to No. 6 Georgia, 4-1, in Gainesville on March 17, 2017, it marked the end of a number of significant streaks:

- Overall home win streak of 163 that included 23 SEC and NCAA Tournament matches. It was the longest active streak of any NCAA Division I team in any sport of any gender in the country and began on January 22, 2005. UF's last home loss was a 4-3 setback to Miami on May 15, 2004.
- Regular-season home win streak of 159 was the longest in program history and included four wins in 2017. The streak began on January 25, 2003, following a regular-season finale 4-3 loss to No. 2 Georgia on April 7, 2002.
- Home win streak against SEC foes of 97 consecutive matches, which is actually the second-longest streak of its kind in program history. UF had won a program-record 108 against SEC teams at home that ended April 7, 2002, to the Bulldogs, who are the only league team to defeat the Gators at home.
- UF is now 217-5 all-time at home against SEC teams, a record that includes SEC and NCAA Tournament matches.
- Florida had won 17 consecutive regular-season SEC matches before tonight.
- UF had won 26 straight regular-season matches – a run that began with a 7-0 decision against Arkansas on March 3, 2016.

INCREDIBLE GATOR STREAKS

- On March 5, 2000, fifth-ranked Wake Forest upset Florida 5-4 in Winston-Salem, N.C., snapping the Gators' regular-season dual match winning streak at 114 consecutive victories.
- Stanford ended Florida's program-record overall dual match winning streak at 62 matches, claiming a 5-1 decision on May 18, 1997 in the final of the NCAA Championship held in Palo Alto, Calif.
- March 28, 2001 was a bitter cold and windy evening at the Ring Tennis Complex, where No. 5 Florida lost 4-1 to No. 2 Duke, a defeat that snapped the Gators' 64-match regular-season home winning streak.
- Florida boasted a remarkable 108-0 all-time home record against SEC opponents until April 7, 2002, when No. 2 Georgia handed the Gators a 4-3 setback.
- The Gators had won 69 consecutive dual matches against SEC opponents until No. 8 Ole Miss upset Florida with a 5-4 decision on April 25, 1999 in the final of the SEC Tournament. The loss also snapped an overall win streak of 53 straight dual match victories.
- Lisa Raymond ended her collegiate career on a 44-match singles win streak, capturing a pair of NCAA titles.
- The Gator doubles team of Whitney Laiho and Jessica Lehnhoff won a program-record 29 consecutive doubles matches during the 2000-01 season.

ALFRED A. RING TENNIS COMPLEX

The entrance to the Ring Tennis Complex, which includes the Scott Linder Stadium

The Gator women's tennis program has always been the benefactor of one of the nation's top tennis facilities. Thanks to multiple generous contributions of the late Dr. Alfred A. Ring, the entire facility has undergone several upgrades to make it one of the best in the country.

The Alfred Ring Tennis Complex was completed during in January of 1999, following a $1.7 million renovation project. The focal point is a building adjacent to the courts that serves as home to the men's and women's teams.

Alfred A. Ring

In December 2012, the lavish $1.5 million addition to the Ring Tennis Complex was finished and the University of Florida became one of just two universities in the state with indoor tennis capability.

Thanks to the generous contributions of Nancy Perry, The Charles R. and Nancy V. Perry Indoor Tennis Facility is a 22,800-square foot area that is ventilated and features three courts (with regulation space around them), state-of-the-art surfacing and lighting, plus a small area for fans to watch matches.

The Perry facility replaces the covered pavilion that was built nearly 20 years ago.

Enhancements were made throughout the Ring Tennis Complex during the summer of 2011, recognizing each of the Gator men's and women's championships teams, as well as its NCAA Singles and Doubles Champions underneath the Scott Linder Stadium.

The main building of the complex encompasses 5,620 square feet and includes coaches' offices for the men's and women's teams, as well as a training room and locker rooms for both players and coaches. There is also a conference room, a reception area and a 3,000 square-foot courtyard. The complex has a locker room for opposing teams, bringing the total building areas to 7,163 square feet.

The complex also features Scott Linder Stadium, a 1,000-seat grandstand overlooking six main lighted courts, in addition to a second row of six courts. The courts, which are resurfaced every two years – most recently in the summer of 2012, are made of a hard court surface similar to the type of court found at the U.S. Open.

The grandstand is highlighted by a two-level, 15-seat press box and features six electronic scoreboards over each of the six courts, providing point-by-point updates on all six grandstand courts. Concessions and restrooms are conveniently located beneath the grandstand.

The attractive complex is surrounded by palm trees and a lush green landscape that easily makes it one of the most inviting tennis environments for both the spectator and the competitor. Even prior to the 1999 renovation, the Alfred A. Ring Complex received national attention for its splendor.

THE RING TENNIS COMPLEX RECOGNITION

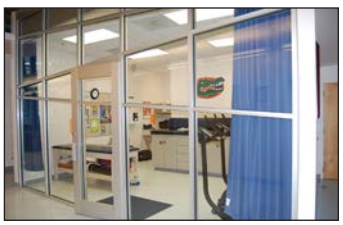
- 1999 USTA Outstanding Tennis Facility Award
- ATHLETIC BUSINESS Magazine presented UF with its 2001 Facility of Merit Award
- Won the Silver Award in the 1999 City of Gainesville Beautification Awards in the Institutional Category



A small training room is inside the main building of the Ring Tennis Complex for added convenience.

"We'll be able to hit balls come rain or shine, which can only add to our development as a program and the development of our players," UF women's tennis head coach Roland Thornqvist said.

The Perry facility replaces the covered pavilion that was built nearly 20 years ago.

As tradition, coach Roland Thornqvist signs one of the facility's beams during the 'topping off' ceremony.

The first time the facility was put to match use was on Feb. 24, 2013, when the Gators hosted Stanford and rain forced the final three singles matches indoors.
